RESPONSE

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

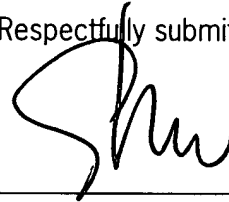

This is in response to the Office Action dated September 26, 2003. The Applicants believe that no extension of time is due as October 26, 2003 fell on a Sunday. If the Commissioner believes otherwise, the Commissioner is authorized to deduct the extension fee (small entity) from the undersigned representative's deposit account no. 13-2490.

The Applicants provisionally elect the invention of Group I (claims 1-42) and nanoparticle as the single species, with traverse. The Applicants submit that unity of invention exists at least with respect to Groups I, III and IV. Group III includes method claim 54 which depends from the nanoparticle claim 40 of Group I. Similarly, Group IV includes kit claim 60 which depends from the nanoparticle claim 40 of Group I. Hence, Groups I, III, and IV share a common inventive nanoparticle feature. Accordingly, withdrawal of the unity of invention objection as applied to Group I, III, and IV is in order and is respectfully requested.

Prompt consideration and entry of this amendment is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: Oct. 27, 2003
